Our club is having an activity once a month. Last month on 27th to 28th of August five of us including 2 teachers, 3 students including me, our club member Stephanie and our club leader Ando, climbed the tallest mountain of Japan. At first, I couldn't picture myself getting on the top of the mountain but as we started our adventure everything suddenly became exciting. Looking to those elder people that just got descended from the mountain made me think if they can do it I can. We took so many pictures of the view as we get closer to the peak. We spent our night on the 7th station also called Kamaiwakan. We slept for almost 5 hours then we had our breakfast before we continue our adventure. It was almost 3 in the morning when we continued and it took us 6 hours to finally get to the summit. We all felt really satisfied that our almost two days of a heel trip was done. I'm so grateful to our teachers who gave me opportunity to fulfill my dream. Thank you for the adventures I experienced because of this club.

SHOLARSHIP

Win a scholarship or not!!

Many of students start thinking about what I am going to do after graduate from Suiran. Some students want to get a job, the others want to go to University.

When you want to go to university however money is not enough, you might think about scholarship. If you are looking for scholarships to help pay for university, by getting an early start, you're increasing your chances of winning more money for college. One reason is that some scholarships inquired the good status of one's socialistic efforts. There are 2 types of scholarships. One is loan-based scholarship programs, another is grant-type scholarship programs. Furthermore loan-base scholarship has 2 types: Interest free student loans and Loans charging interest.

WORLD WIDE VIEW

I am a student at Yokohama Suiran high school

Hello everyone My name is Sanvictores Ma Apple Dimple.

I was born in the Philippines on December 1998. I grew up in a simple life with a loving family. I lived in Philippines for 17 years. Then I went to Japan to study and work. The most impressive thing in my childhood is playing outside the house with my friends under the sun. Because that time technology is not that popular.

So I enjoyed my childhood playing outside and not with technology. And spending birthday parties with friends and family is the most memorable event in my childhood.

At the moment I am studying Japanese and also working at the same time. I also made some new friends when I enter Yokohama Suiran, friends that are the same age with me. I'm currently thinking if I will go to college after I graduate from high school.

I am a student at Yokohama Suiran high school

Hello my name is Crea Kumazawa

I was born in Yokohama Japan. I live in the town until now. My mother is from Philippine My father is a Japanese. When I was a baby, I lived in Philippines for a year. So when I was 2 years old, I didn't speak Japanese as well as others.

The most impressive thing in my childhood is singing with guitar in front of so many people. I was very nervous at that time. However I felt that I broke the shell. I felt very good that my voice was reached to many people.

At the moment my dream is go to the Japanese university that my father graduated. My father speaks English very good. If I could speak English well I can communicate with many foreign people. Also I can study many foreign Cultures. Therefore I want to keep studying English.

My Country

My name is Jeane. The name comes from movies. I was born and raised in Philippines, and been here for about 1 year. But today I can feel the difference of the 2 countries and cultures. What is come back the Philippines the most is my family and beautiful places.

The father remains the head of the family whereas the mother is responsible for domestic matters and teaching the children their values, at the earliest age. The children are taught the words po and opo to show respect for their elders. Even adults are disciplined for not addressing their parents or elders without using this words.

My favorite place in Philippines is Puerto princes, located on the northern coast of the island of Palawan, Puerto princes is a nature lover's paradise. Home to unspoiled land scalper rich in wild life. This lovely town also lays claim to one of the world's most unique natural phenomena an underground river known as the Puerto prince's subterranean river. Protected within a national park. This natural wonder is the world's largest having able Underground River.

Life in Japan is hard for, sure. But I've stayed for 1year. Outside of study, and loneliness, Japan has clearly captured some tiny in my imagination that has inspired me to stay. Because Japan are responsible. They respect foreigner, and Japan is listed safe country in the world.

Finally, every country has its own preserved or adapted cultures. Cultures may different from many things. Like celebrating certain occasions and engaging with our daily lives. Japan and Philippines are two different countries located in Asia. I like both country, I like Japanese foods like sushi. And I like the weather in Japan like winter, because in Philippines has no winter. Then sometimes I miss my country and my family and friends. In Philippines Christmas eve is the biggest occasion every year, because every family is celebrating together. That's why I want to go home in Philippines but I have so many challenges here in Japan to face it. The biggest difference here in Japan is now they treat other peoples from another countries, and now I got a lot of new friends. I want to study and experience the part time job here. Thank you
